MAKING DAD GLAD

There are many gifts you could give your Dad this Father's Day. Some he would enjoy and some he would endure (like funny ties). Here are a few principles from Proverbs that will please your Dad even more than a present.

(1) Use that wisdom your Dad had tried so hard to give you- "A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother." (Proverbs 10:1). Your Dad has worked hard and sacrificed greatly so you could receive a good education in order for you to be properly equipped to be a success in life. Do not "blow it" by making foolish decision and ignoring all your Father has taught you - "He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow: and the father of a fool hath no joy." (Proverbs 17:21)

(2) Stay away from people and situations that will destroy your character and corrupt your conduct- "Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance." (Proverbs 29:3). When you are 16 you think your Dad is the dumbest person in the world. When you are 26 you realize he was one of the smartest men you have ever known. Remember that when you disobey your father's instructions about boys to date and friends to hang out with.

(3) Get into a right relationship with the Heavenly Father- "The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him." (Proverbs 23:24). Nothing you could do this Father's Day will make your father any happier than you committing to live your life for God. It will cause your father to "greatly rejoice" and make this the best Father's Day he has ever had.
